The government disclaims any desire to meddle with the Egyptian finances. The dispatches from Vienna and Berlin STUART & KIRKLAND, Proprietors. indicate that peaceful preparations are made to secure pacification upon the acceptance of Andrassy's note. The Times Paris special says a comparison of the official text of Count Andrassy's note, with the version prematurely published by the Cologne Gazette, shows only a few verbal differences. In his speech, in the House of Commons, last evening, Mr. Disraeli made the following important announcement: Before we agreed to support Austria it had been intimated to us, in an unmistakable manner, that it was the Porte's desire, however much he objected to the note, that England should stand aloof.
